

COOPER, NEW PRESIDENT — Newly-elected City Council President Leo Cooper, 11th Ward, left, is the head of the table Tuesday as the 11 other aldermen look on. They are, counter-clockwise, Aldo Altko, 10th Ward; William Hall, 7th Ward; Robert Prideman, 14th Ward; Mrs. Jane Rack, 20th Ward; Harold Robinson, 13th Ward;...

New Auditorium Committee Named Council Rebuffs Dyke on Two Board Choices

By GEORGE MITCHELL
City News Staff
The new City Council Tuesday rejected two proposals of Mayor William D. Dyke in an apparent effort to prevent the construction of a new auditorium. The council also rejected a request by Dyke to name two members to a new auditorium committee. The council's action was a rebuff to Dyke's proposals, which he had introduced in a meeting Tuesday night. Dyke's proposals were: to name a new auditorium committee; to name two members to the committee; and to name a new auditorium site. The council's action was a rebuff to Dyke's proposals, which he had introduced in a meeting Tuesday night.

Mayor Emphasizes Need for Cooperation

Mayor William D. Dyke told a potentially hostile City Council Tuesday the future of the city depends on its willingness to cooperate with him. The mayor said that if the council is to do its job, it must learn to work together. He said that if the council is to do its job, it must learn to work together. He said that if the council is to do its job, it must learn to work together.

Leapfrog Played by Non-Paraders

By CLIFFORD C. BEHNKE
City News Staff
University of Wisconsin employees held a "leapfrog" parade Tuesday morning, played cross-country with Madison police. The parade was a "leapfrog" parade, played cross-country with Madison police. The parade was a "leapfrog" parade, played cross-country with Madison police.

Wisconsin State Journal

MADISON, WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 22, 1970

City Says No to a March

Leapfrog Played by Non-Paraders

By CLIFFORD C. BEHNKE
City News Staff
University of Wisconsin employees held a "leapfrog" parade Tuesday morning, played cross-country with Madison police. The parade was a "leapfrog" parade, played cross-country with Madison police.

Pastoral Council Plan To Be Offered Tonight

By WILLIAM H. WENKE
A proposed constitution for a Pastoral Council for the Madison Catholic Diocese will be introduced at 7:30 tonight at a public meeting at St. Paul's Cathedral. The council would form a basis for priests, nuns, and lay people to consult with each other.

State Union Local Ratify New Contract

Union locals at the Northern and Southern states and the Wisconsin State Hospital last night ratified a new contract with the State. The contract provides for a 5% raise in wages and other benefits.

Two Boys Injured in City Accidents

By JAMES H. DEER
City News Staff
Two Madison boys, a 9-year-old and a 10-year-old, were injured Tuesday in separate city accidents. One boy was injured in a car accident, and the other in a bicycle accident.

Donald Peterson Expected to Announce for Governor

By JAMES H. DEER
City News Staff
Donald O. Peterson, Eau Claire businessman and U.S. House member, is expected to announce his candidacy for governor Friday. Peterson has scheduled news conferences in Milwaukee and Madison for that day.

Nokemia Pupils Will Go to Dudgeon

Students of the Dudgeon School in Nokemia will go to the Dudgeon School in Nokemia for their education. The school is a private school and is located in Nokemia, Wis.

With Dudgeon Out, MEC Seeks a Home

By ROGER A. GRIBBLE
City News Staff
The Madison Environmental Commission (MEC) is still looking for a home. The commission is a group of citizens who are concerned about the environment in Madison. They are looking for a place to hold their meetings and to do their work.

Car-Truck Crash Injures Verona Man

A 33-year-old Verona man was injured Tuesday night in a car-truck crash on the State Highway near Verona. The man was driving a car and was struck by a truck. He was taken to the hospital and is expected to recover.

UW Glass Cost $2,500 in Riot

The University of Wisconsin Tuesday paid $2,500 for damage done to the University's glass during a riot on Saturday. The riot was held in the University's library and caused significant damage to the building.

Police Chief Aides Injured in Car Crash

Two Madison police officers and their aides were injured Tuesday in a car crash on the State Highway. The car was driving on the highway and was struck by another vehicle. The officers were taken to the hospital and are expected to recover.

MEC Seeks a Home

The Madison Environmental Commission (MEC) is still looking for a home. The commission is a group of citizens who are concerned about the environment in Madison. They are looking for a place to hold their meetings and to do their work.

Two Boys Injured

Two Madison boys, a 9-year-old and a 10-year-old, were injured Tuesday in separate city accidents. One boy was injured in a car accident, and the other in a bicycle accident.

Donald Peterson Expected

Donald O. Peterson, Eau Claire businessman and U.S. House member, is expected to announce his candidacy for governor Friday. Peterson has scheduled news conferences in Milwaukee and Madison for that day.

Nokemia Pupils Will Go

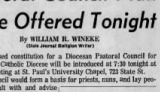

Students of the Dudgeon School in Nokemia will go to the Dudgeon School in Nokemia for their education. The school is a private school and is located in Nokemia, Wis.

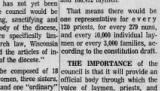

STEPHEN ARGENT

DONALD PETERSON

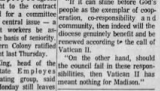

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

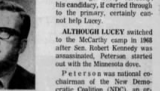

DONALD PETERSON

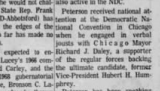

DONALD PETERSON

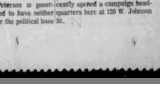

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON

DONALD PETERSON