Clean Up City Hall to Clean Up Lakes, Group Told

Lakes Body May Run Own State

Association Told Only Means of Success is To Get New Administration

100 ATTEND MEET AT LOWELL SCHOOL Report of Special Chemist Offered; Would Abandon Burke Plant

To clean up the Madison lakes may first be necessary to clean up the Madison city hall.

This was the message of a report made at a meeting of the Clean Lakes Association in the Lowell school building last night.

The report was made by a special chemist who had analyzed the water from the Madison lakes.
